ORDER:-

In the reference 1st read above, Sri K. Errama Reddy, has stated that the TTD Board imposed a punishment of cut of 5% of pension per month for one year. The order of the Board need to be reviewed and set-aside basing on the judgments rendered by the civil courts. He represented that the Inquiry officer had not conducted enquiry in its true spirit and not followed APCS (CCA) Rules and threatened him several times. He also complained that the Inquiry Officer took certain materials, and complaints filed by some employees which are not relevant to the case. He also alleged that he was not given a reasonable opportunity to defend his case. The Board has also not seen the merits of the case and took the report of Inquiry Officer into cognizance and awarded punishment. Hence, he requested to consider his appeal and set-aside the orders passed by the Trust Board.

2. The E.O. TTD has furnished his report and relevant records and requested to take necessary action in the matter.

3. The case was called for hearing on 19-01-2016. The appellant and the representative of TTD attended and the case was heard.

4. Government have heard the arguments and examined relevant records. The enquiry was conducted in accordance with rules. Permission was also given to cross examine the witnesses. The enquiry reveals that the family of appellant conducted chits. As per conduct rules, the employee has to intimate, if their family members do business or private employment, etc.,to the employer. But the appellant failed to do so. Though there was no loss to the institution, he breached the conduct rules.

5. Government after careful examination of all the facts and taking a lenient view hereby order to impose a token cut of Rs. 500/- in pension for one time, instead of the punishment of 5% cut in pension per month for a period one year.

(PTO)

6. Accordingly, the appeal petition of Sri K. Errama Reddy is allowed by setting aside the orders issued in Roc No. B2/6243/2011, Dt. 17-11-2011.

7. The Executive Officer, Tirumala Tirupati Devasthnams shall take necessary action in the matter, accordingly.
